

Der Artikel

Übungen / Exercises

1. Setze "a" oder "an" vor die Wörter!
Put „a“ or „an“ in the front of the verbs.

- | | | |
|-------------------------|------------------|--------------------|
| 1. cup of tea | 11. order | 21. ideal solution |
| 2. young lady | 12. room | 22. apple |
| 3. end | 13. bike | 23. tree |
| 4. pencil | 14. roadmap | 24. error |
| 5. action | 15. van | 25. clock |
| 6. dress | 16. umbrella | 26. old house |
| 7. sign | 17. honour | 27. wall |
| 8. American businessman | 18. telephone | 28. desk |
| 9. window | 19. English book | 29. building |
| 10. radio | 20. table | 30. street |

2. Setze "a" oder "an" ein, aber nur, wenn notwendig!
Put in "a" or "an", but only where necessary.

1. Mary has ... nice sister.
2. He went out without ... umbrella.
3. I was in ... hurry, so I forgot to buy ... ticket.
4. He was treated as ... good friend.
5. Susan's father is ... artist.
6. I have ... terrible headache.
7. Mary Stuart was ... Catholic.
8. The shop sell about ... hundred fridges ... year.
9. What ... wonderful castle!
10. This student visited London in ... June.
11. His car does 90 miles ... hour.
12. Our neighbour is rather ... nice man.
13. They live in ... bungalow at the seaside.
14. ... certain Mr Smith wants to speak to you.
15. We usually watch ... film at 7 o'clock.
16. As ... coach he was ... great success.
17. I want to become ...engineer.
18. He is not in ... good temper today.
19. We haven't had such ... good weekend for years.
20. Lucy was ... stewardess before she became ... actress.